

Join Limitless Planet for Dak'Art, Africa's largest contemporary art exhibition.

Artist from across the African continent will be showing their work at Dak'Art 2018. Your curated experience includes exhibitions each day, local Senegalese studio visits, and meet and greet cocktail parties with a variety of African artist. Join us on this once in a life opportunity as we explore the cutting edge of Contemporary African Art.

Your Host

Modou Dieng was born in Saint-Louis, Senegal. He is a multidisciplinary artist and curator exploring the symbolic and mythological power of pop culture icons through mixed media and hybrid materials. His work constructs a mural of archetypal cultural imagery filtered through the perspective of a generation X African. Dieng has exhibited internationally and is the founder and director of Worksound International, a curatorial project based in Portland, OR. Dieng holds an MFA in Painting from the San Francisco Art Institute and is currently Associate Professor at Pacific Northwest College of Art.

Additional Options to do on your free time in Dakar:

- Goree Island- Gorée is a tiny, car-free island off the coast of Dakar, in Senegal. It's known for its role in the 15th- to 19th-century Atlantic slave trade. On the narrow streets, colonial buildings include the House of Slaves, now a museum. The 19th-century Fort d'Estrées houses the IFAN Historical Museum, with exhibits on Senegal's past. The Henriette Bathily Women's Museum considers the role of women in West African society.
- N'gor Island- Eight hundred from the mainland, this spot has become a trendy place and a surfer hideaway. The island is a very peaceful and relaxed. The boat bringing you across the water is a 'pirogue' (traditional fishing boat). As soon as you step off the boat, you will feel the exotic atmosphere. Walking around the Island you can find small galleries offering art, music, white sandy beaches, and restaurants.
